- Can I come in any entrance for the Early Bird Sale? The only entrance that will be open at 7:30 is the 'Flag Pole' entrance. If you are looking at the front of McAlister Square, there are three entrances into the mall area - the entrance on the left near the University Center, the main middle entrance by Cesar's, and the entrance on the right near Greenville Tech Admissions that has the flag pole. This third entrance is the only one that will be open at 7:30. The other two will open at 8:30. The 'Flag Pole' entrance will be marked on Saturday morning with balloons.

All shoppers will have to clear the book area and stand behind the cashiers to allow the volunteers to straighten the book tables and restock any discarded books. Each person will be given a bag that they can begin filling up at 3pm with books of their choice. Each bag will be $10.
